

Flipping the Classroom for Introverts

Techniques for Encouraging
Participation

Source: Nicki Monahan, George Brown College

Introverts v. Extroverts

- ◉ Not Shy or Withdrawn
- ◉ Indicated by Behavior
 - Comfortable working alone
 - Think before speaking
 - Use writing to express

Contribution to Class

● Technology

- Online discussions
 - Slower Pace
 - Written Speech
- Twitter
- Chatrooms

Contribution to Class

- Low (non) Technology

- Exit Passes
 - Questions
 - Responses
 - Applications
- Cue Cards
 - Summary
 - Connect Reading

Contribution to Class

● Low (non) Technology

- Question Boxes
 - Break in class
 - Anonymous submission
 - Form of participation

Contribution to Class

- Verbal Presentation

- Day One Norms
 - Students must speak
 - Partnered activities
- Wait Time
- Think/Ink/Pair/Share
 - Extroverts
 - Introverts

Contribution to Class

● Verbal Presentation

- Numbered Heads
- Cold Calling
 - Group setting
 - Willing to share?

Summary

- Manifestation of Learning Style
- Multi-level Communication
- Alternate Methods of Participation
- Comfort Zone