

How to See Your Originality Report or Draft Comments

Step 1: Click on Dropbox at the top of D2L. You should see several dropbox folders. Under Submissions, you should see a number. Click on the number beside the draft you want to see.

Step 2: After you click on the number, you should see the following screen show up. Click on the colored box.

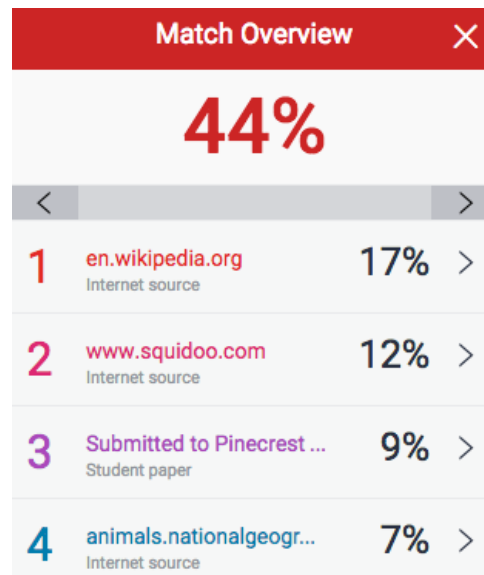

Originality Report (or Plagiarism Report)

Step 3: When you click on the colored box, you should be taken to Turnitin.com. From there, you may have to click that you agree with their privacy statement. Click yes. You should see your draft appear on the screen. To see the originality report to see what plagiarism might be present, look at the Match Overview menu on the right. The Match Overview gives you a breakdown of all the matches that have been found in the paper and allows you to clearly view the similarity score. Matches are ordered by highest instance of similarity down to the lowest. Each match has a color and a number attached to it. These color tags will help you to find the match on the paper itself.

To view the Match Overview, click on the red, numerical similarity score from the product toolbar.

Step 4: The Match Overview will be displayed within the Match Overview side panel.

Step 5: Having clicked the Match Overview icon, this will also highlight any matches within the paper itself. Each match can be color coded to help you identify them easily.

The blue whale's common name derives from bluish-hue that covers the upper side of its body, while its Latin designation is Balaenoptera musculus. The blue whale belongs to the Mysticeti suborder of cetaceans, also known as baleen whales, which means they have fringed plates of fingernail-like material, called baleen, attached to their upper jaws. Blue whales feed almost exclusively on krill, though they also take small numbers of copepods. An adult blue whale can eat up to 40 million krill in a day.

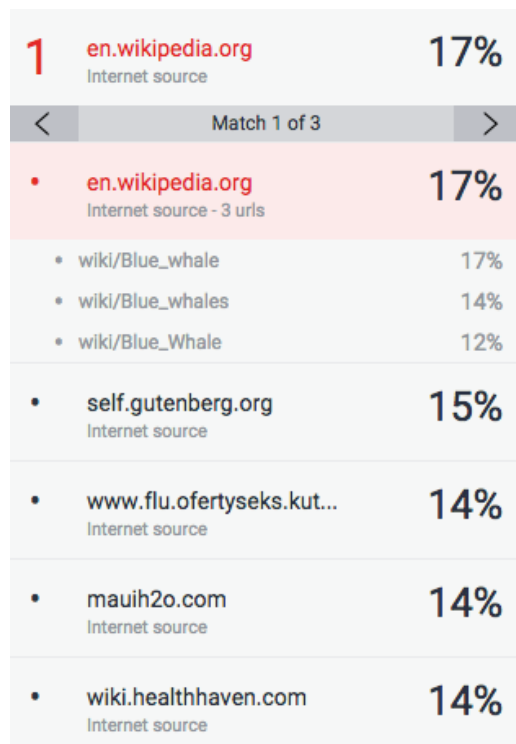

Step 6: By clicking on one of the sources from the Match Overview side panel, you can discover how many matches have been found for each source. Click the navigation arrows to jump from one match to the next; this will move you through the paper itself.

Step 7: Should you wish to see a match breakdown for each source, click the arrow to the right of the source.

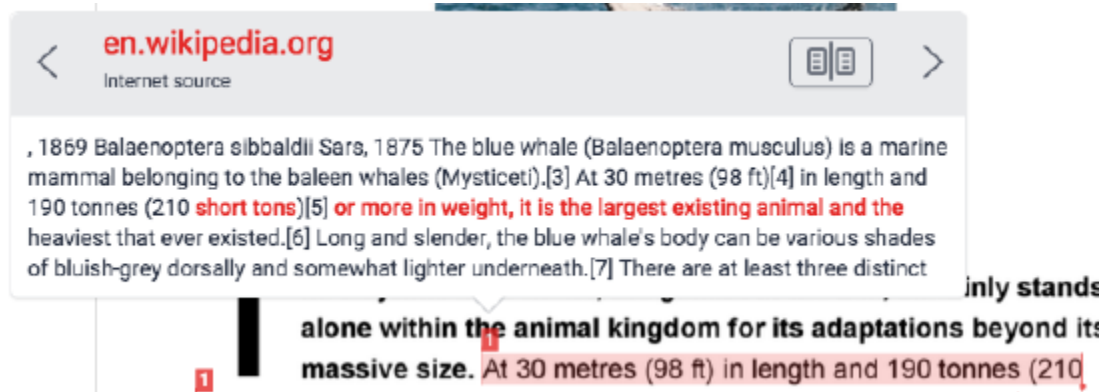

Step 8: You can now see a large list of all the sources concerning this particular match. Click any of these matches to be directed to it on your paper.

Step 9: Viewing Source Details: If you would like to see more information regarding the text that has matched to a source, click on the source number from within the paper whales. This led to the killing of hundreds of thousands of whales up until 1966, when the International Whaling Commission banned the practice.

Feedback Type #3: Bubble Comments

Bubble comments allow your instructor to provide you with more detailed feedback. A bubble comment may be highlighted and linked to a specific piece of text.

Alternatively, a bubble comment may be placed alongside a line or paragraph. This is usually the case if your instructor is making a more general comment about your paper.

Click the bubble comment icon on your paper to view your instructor's comment. When done, click anywhere outside of the comment window to close it.

Feedback Type #4: Quickmarks

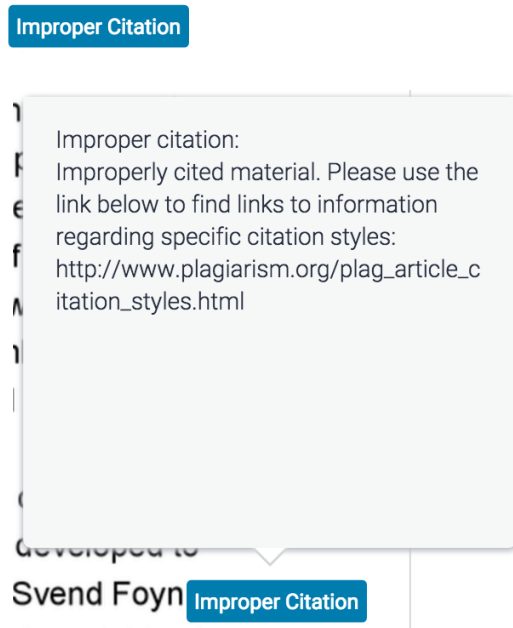

QuickMarks allow your instructor to create a library of feedback that might be applicable, on multiple occasions, to multiple students, across multiple classes and assignments. A QuickMark may be a word or phrase, or may even be an abbreviation. A QuickMark may be highlighted and labeled to refer to a specific piece of text.

Alternatively, a QuickMark may be placed alongside a line or paragraph. This is usually the case if your instructor is making a more general comment about your paper.

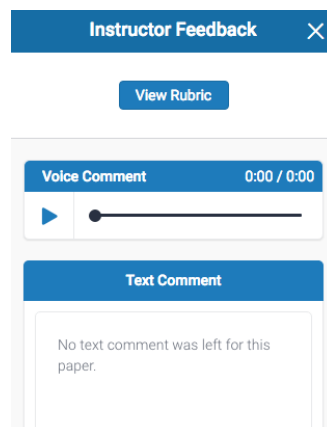

Click on the QuickMark to view the definition of the mark. Scroll through the QuickMark information (if any is available); then, click anywhere outside of the expanded QuickMark to close it.

Feedback Type #5: General Instructor Feedback

The Instructor Feedback side panel allows your instructor to give you more general feedback about your entire paper. They can do this in two ways: by leaving a voice comment or by leaving a text comment.

Feedback Type #6: Voice Comments

To make your feedback more personalized, your instructor may leave you a voice comment regarding your paper. This can save your instructor time and can make explanations clearer and more detailed for you as a student.

To access voice comments, click the speech bubble icon from the product toolbar

The Instructor Feedback side panel will appear and will allow you to listen to your instructor's voice comment. Press the triangular play icon to the left of the voice comment box

To pause the recording, click the pause icon to the left of the voice comment box

Feedback Type #7: Text Comments

A text comment is an overall comment given by your instructor regarding your whole paper. This may include comments on positive aspects of your paper, how you can improve in future, or any issues with your paper.

To view your instructor's text comment, click the speech bubble icon from the product toolbar.

Your instructor's text comment is now visible from the Instructor Feedback side panel.

Feedback Type #8: Rubrics

Rubric scorecards can be used to evaluate student work based on defined criteria and scales. Grading forms can be used to provide free form feedback and scores to evaluate student work based on defined criteria.

If your instructor has used a rubric scorecard to grade your paper, you can view the criteria and scale that they have used to grade.

To access the rubric for your assignment click the speech bubble icon from the product toolbar

Select the View Rubric button from the Instructor Feedback side panel to open the scorecard

A new window will appear where you can view the rubric scorecard that was used to grade your paper. Each blue highlighted box shows where you have been graded in each of the criteria of the assignment. You may need to scroll up and down or left and right to see all boxes, depending on the size of your browser's window

Note: If your browser has a pop-up blocker active, you may need to add Turnitin to its exceptions list in order to view the rubric scoring card.

Feedback Type #9: Grading Forms

If your instructor has used a grading form to grade your paper, you can view the score and comments they have given for each criterion in the grading form.

To access the expanded grading form, click the online grading icon from the product toolbar.

Select the View Rubric button from the Instructor Feedback side panel to open the scorecard.

From this new window, you can view the grading form that was used to grade your paper. Each criterion will be followed with a score and an optional comment; this information displays the extent to which you have achieved each criterion. Your total score can be found at the bottom of the grading form.

Criteria
Style This is the amount of style you brought to the piece of work. As well as being grammatically correct this includes how well did you engage me as a reader.	Score 40	Comment I really like how you have set out this assignment! The picture especially draws you in and truly lets you visualize this 'Goliath of the Sea.'
Factual How well researched was your essay? Have you used citations correctly? Did you stick with information readily available on wikipedia or did you do actual research?	Score 15	Comment This is quite a factual piece but you don't reference anywhere. It is fine to use facts you have found else where but you should be following the citation methodology you were taught in orientation.
Narrative How well does your piece of work read? Did I want to carry on reading after the first line or were you simply stating facts without thought for your audience?	Score 20	Comment I really liked how you grabbed my attention. Your opening line was great! However it ends so abruptly, it is great to leave your reader wanting more but you don't accomplish that by not writing half your paper.
